

Week 3

Week Three was exciting because the kindy students designed and opened an ice-cream shop. They wrote letters to the teachers, posted them in the school mailbox and then created signs for the grand opening.

The students then served the teachers when they came to buy their ice-creams. It was wonderful to watch the children take ownership of the shop!

